

March Newsletter

Providence Ballet School

Monthly Affirmation

I embrace challenges as opportunities to grow.

Updates

As we leap into March, be sure you are signed up for Session 4. Our much-anticipated Year-End Performance is fast approaching and we will begin preparing now! Your participation forms and payments are due this month. Also, a friendly reminder that ballet buns are an essential part of our uniform. There's no better time than now, as we prepare for our year-end performance, to learn how to execute the "perfect" Ballet Bun.

Don't miss Providence Ballet Theatre's Hansel and Gretel!

Important Dates

Monday, March 3

Session 4 Begins

Saturday, March 15

Year End Participation Form & Payment

Friday, March 28 & Saturday March 29

Providence Ballet Theatre presents

Hansel and Gretel

Additional Dates to Celebrate

Women's History Month
International Women's Day:

Mar. 8

St. Patrick's Day:

Mar. 17

First Day of Spring:

Mar. 20

Ballet Buns are apart of the uniform!

Just as we wear specific attire for ballet class, the ballet bun is an essential part of our uniform. It helps maintain a professional appearance, keeps us safe, and allows us to dance with focus and grace. Learn how to do a Ballet Bun:

<https://www.providenceballet.com/class-descriptions--dress-code.html>

